WAR CLOUDS

The people of America have always had the greatest respect for the people of Germany. But for the present century at least, we have not extended that respect to the leadership of Germany.

In the World War, our quarrel was with Wilhelm, not Heine. And today we feel the same way about Herr Hitler.

As we interpret contemporary Germany, there are three men in the Nation to be considered rather than one. Hitler is the most publicized of these, but not the best entrenched.
In the better position is Blomberg, the head of the new German army.
So much stronger is the regular army than the Storm Troops that Hitler's tenure of power depends upon Blomberg's favor. And then, behind both Hitler and Blomberg is Herr Schacht, the financial wizard who somehow juggles the treasury to raise the tremendous funds the Nazi program requires.

Hitler and Blomberg and Schacht these three dominate modern Germany. Any opinion as to the next move across the Rhine is merely guesswork. War may be imminent in Europe. Undoubtedly the stage is set for another holocaust. Yet, we cannot help but feel that Hitler's sending of his army into the demilitarized Rhineland area, had stronger internal than external motives.
If that assumption be true, alarm over peace can be allayed by calmness in Paris and London. Unless Hitler's hand is forced, we cannot think he feels that "Der Tag" has been reached.

The foreign and domestic policies of a dictator must be constantly changed to maintain the dictator's position. Stability is too much to expect in Berlin or in Rome.

WILL BEAR WATCHING

Existing law says that nations in default in payment of debt to be U. S. cannot borrow money here.

With war clouds hovering over Europe, the defaulting nations can not go much closer toward war unless they know where the money to finance it is coming from.

Knowing the above, what are we left to guess when we read that the defaulters might be ready to arrange a war debt settlement?

We trust that congress will not permit the debtor countries to pay up barely enough to renew their credit so they can secure huge war loans from American bankers. We had better lose collection of past war debts than finance a new one.

VOTING CHANGE

Appomattox county has never had to show many ballots because of improper marking. Our voters are far above the average in knowing how to mark a correct ballot.

Yet, we welcome the new law for changing the method of marking a ballot as an improvement. In the future, you must put a check beside the name you want instead of scratching out the names you do not want. When the voters get on to the change, they will find it easier.

ington and Los Angeles in Southern Conference basketball title.

German army crosses the Rhine to occupy demilitarized zone.

Something worth remembering . . .

The past few years have brought to us amazing relief programs. Taxes were desperate and perhaps justified unusual measures.

But the Naked Truth is this:

No person or set of persons, not even Uncle Sam or F. D. R. can or will take care of you very long.

Nothing . . . nothing will take the place of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT.

Money in bank gives you a sense of security nothing else gives. Be thrifty. Be independent. Start now to save.

Bent Creek, March 10. From the croaking of the frogs and the singing of the birds it seems as if Spring is around the corner and will soon be here.

The weather has been so bad that those who failed to do fall following are behind with work, most of our farmers who had not finished marketing tobacco are making preparation to sell now. The price has been very unsatisfactory but the farmer has to go on making it from year to year.

C. M. Dixon, who has been spending the last year with his sister, Mrs. C. W. Phelps has returned to his home in Summersville, Ala. He had thought it was not possible for him to spend a winter in Virginia after living in Alabama for the last 40 years but the illness of his sister, Miss. Fannie Dixon, who has been in the hospital for several years, kept him here. He left apparently in good health. His friends miss him here.

Mrs. W. W. Thornhill received word that her sister, Mrs. Annie Reginald was ill in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Thornhill has been sick for several weeks but she went aboard.

Mrs. J. R. Marks is at the Lynchburg hospital where she will be treated for a complication of disease.

Mr. W. L. Watts, who has been sick for several weeks, is now home.

We regret to hear of the illness of your townsman, A. R. Harwood.

Affirmative voting to be used in Virginia under new law.

The first annual week of prayer and devotion by the local H. Y. organization at the Appomattox Training School is making a deep impression upon the minds of both students and faculty. The exercises each morning have centered around the theme, "Discovering Jesus." The following speakers appeared on the program: Rev. Cunningham Monday and Tuesday; Rev. Price Wednesday and Friday. The devotionals were conducted each morning by H. Y. members. The visiting students were presented by the chaplain, Rev. R. Q. Lawing.

Professor and Mrs. E. T. Johnson made a contribution of ten books each to the local library last Friday evening.

There will be a special service at the Promise Land Baptist church Sunday night at 7:30. Rev. W. B.
Yates, pastor of the Galilee church will be the guest speaker. The newly organized choir under the direction of Professor Lawing will present a literary program and furnish special music.

Mrs. Bettie Flood is out again after several days of illness.

G. J. Stevens and family and Carroll Robinson attended the funeral of their cousin in Lynchburg Sunday.

Professor and Mrs. Burks, vocational teacher in Cumberland, were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Lawing Tuesday evening.

Rev. Nunn, of Lynchburg, preached at the morning and night service at the First Baptist church Sunday.

Rev. A. E. Jordan attended his Crosby church last Sunday.

Carney Abbot, and Roosevelt Wright, members of the CCC camp at Yorktown were here Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Nunn was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Watkins.

Misses Hester Stevens and Mildred Hart entertained at bridge Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawing. The high score went to Mrs. Tressa Hamlet.

Miss Lillie Clayton spent the week end as guest of Mrs. Theda Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Johnson entertained last Saturday evening.

MAKE THIS 25c TEST

Drink lots of boiled or distilled water. If irritation causes setting up nights, frequent desire, scanty burning or lumpy stools, you know what hardware does to a teakettle. Drive out even acids and deposits with herbs, leaves, juniper oil, etc. made into green tablets. Mild Dots, the bladder law. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. In four days, if not pleased, any druggist will refund your 25c.
